Dear Subscriber,

The Azaleas are just coming out here in Beaufort, SC. Spring is a beautiful time to visit Beaufort, Charleston, Savannah or anywhere in the Southeast. With the Masters Golf Tournament in Augusta coming April 5 - April 11 2004 and the MCI Heritage in Hilton Head the week after, you know spring is here and the South is in full bloom.

We have selected several hotels for your enjoyment in Charleston and Savannah. There is also a great deal on an Orlando, Florida hotel for those that want an even warmer climate. As usual, we have also included a golf vacation and a cruise to the Caribbean for that special trip. Whether you are getting away from the Northern chill or visiting some of your favorite Southern destinations, Southeast Getaway can help you save money. Don't see something here that you like or you are looking for a place to stay in Augusta, Hilton Head or other Southern points of interest? Simply go to our home page by clicking on the "Visit our Site" link in the lower left and use our convenient hotel search engine.

• Featured Destination: Charleston, South Carolina

Elegant and refined, Charleston mixes European charm with new world energy and excitement. Featuring beautiful buildings, winding streets and a touch of old world luxury, Charleston is the smaller, more comfortable New Orleans of the Upper South.

World Golf-A-Round
Orlando from only $98
per person

Play some of Orlando's finest golf courses, at some of the best prices around. WDW EAGLE PINES: Low, "dish-shaped" fairways and vast sand beds give this Pete Dye design a unique look and an equally unique challenge. WDW MAGNOLIA: This beautifully manicured Joe Lee design is aptly named for its more than 1,500 magnolia trees. As the longest of the Disney courses, the Magnolia is designed in classic PGA style, the wide fairways invite you to hit the ball hard!

WDW LAKE BUENA VISTA: Joe Lee's Lake Buena Vista is characterized by small, slightly elevated, bunkered greens that demand accurate shot-making and an island green on the 7th, that all adds up to a golf experience that you will not forget. WDW OSPREY RIDGE: This resourceful Tom Fazio design is dressed in a cloak of nature, so all you see are dramatic fairways cloistered by magnificent strands of pine and majestic oaks.

Recognized as one of the best courses in Florida by Golf Digest, you'll find Disney's Osprey Ridge truly a walk on the wild side. WDW PALM: Rated one of "America's Top 75 Resort Courses," this Joe

You can take Carriage rides through the Historic District, buy world famous sea grass baskets in the Marketplace, dine at a variety of restaurants or just sit in Waterfront park and gaze out at the water. We go to Charleston almost every month and never tire of its beauty. This time of year, don't miss Magnolia Plantation and Gardens (picture to the right) for a breathtaking display of flowering trees, shrubs and flowers.
